

Angelina M. Iorio

March 17, 2026

Angelina M. Iorio (nee Coccerino) passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on March 17th, 2026 at the age of 95. She was the epitome of the Italian Wife, Mother, Grandmother and Great grandmother. Affectionately known as Angie, Mom and MomMom, everyone was welcome and everyone was fed. She will especially be remembered as being staunchly independent and loving.

Angie was predeceased by her Husband of 55 years, Gabriel Iorio and her brothers Phil, Sonny and Tony. Angie is survived by her loving children, Lorraine M. Bielicki (John), Kathleen A. Olinik (Michael), Maria Kubiak and Barbara A. Antinore (Anthony). She also leaves behind her cherished grandchildren: Lisamarie, Christopher, Bridget, Michael, Matthew, Susie, Andrew, Jeffrey, Anthony, Lauren, Daniel, and Alison, as well as her beautiful great grandchildren Lucy and Jimmy. She will be missed by her surviving sister, Marie, sister-in-law, Janet and many more family members and friends. Angie had a busy life, kept a warm home for her family and worked in a bakery store, and later as an employee of Aramark at the Spectrum. She often brought sweets home for her family from the bakery and regaled us with stories of the celebrities she met at the Spectrum shows. She remained tireless as the years went on, staying independent in her home enjoying visits from all the family. She enjoyed a long and fruitful life.
