“ RIP Uncle Anthony! Our family lost the last of our aunts & uncles, “the baby”.

A ton of my childhood memories are of you! When I was very young, you were more like a big brother - teasing, pranking, babysitting. Can't forget putting my hair in 6-8 pigtails. You saved me from drowning in the waves down the shore!! You gave me a piece of candy that turned out to be chocolate covered ants and fried grasshoppers. Don't forget the “Matchbox” car for my 16th birthday You taught me how to drive and gave mom a car so we had a vehicle to share. SO MANY MEMORIES!!! You were always so thoughtful and family oriented. I will miss you. I hope you are welcomed into heaven by Aunt Edna and your brothers and sisters. I'm so sure Mom and Uncle Joe are waiting with a pot of coffee!
