“ I went to St Michael's Business School with Sissy, she always had the us laughing, was never a dull moment with Sissy around. She had some stories to tell. Last time I spoke to Sissy was 2 years ago. I tried to get InTouch with her last year to get her to go to our School reunion but she never called me back. Rest in Peace Sissy you will be missed

“ Sissy lived on my street. Her entire family was friends with my family. Dougie was my best friend growing up so I was always at their house. Sissy always had me laughing. She would joke around constantly and call me "Mary Melon" a street name given to me by the Hines family lol Sissy was more like family to us Welch girls and boys . I truly loved her. She will be missed. RIP Sis..until we meet again! I'm so sorry for your loss Doug, Patti, Billy!

“ I knew sissy for most of my Life! As a child she grew up around the corner from us! Her and my mother would talk for hours! When my first husband died, she shown up at my door after years of not being in touch her... she cried with me! She was truly one of a kind and will be missed! Thoughts and prayers for the family!
