“ I met Barbara in December, 1988. She was singing at a wedding that I happen to stop by and see. I was getting married in a few weeks on New Years Eve, and wanted to hear her sing. She was magnificent and I asked her if she would be kind enough to sing at Gloria Dei for my wedding. She was so sweet, she said yes, and I made sure she came to our reception at the Downtown Club in Philadelphia. Barbara was forever in my heart. We stayed in touch for a few years and life just got busy for both of us. I have thought of Barbara many times over the last 34 years and I am so saddened with her passing and not knowing it. Now I know to listen for her voice when the angels sing...because I know she is with God.

“ Dear Bevin & Christopher,

So very sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. My husband & I knew her way back in the Eastern Ski Tours days. (Late 60s and early 70s) She was one of the originals! I remember her bubbly personality and always singing at every opportunity!

We had an Eastern Ski Tours reunion a few years ago and tried to locate her and a couple other ladies we worked with back then, but were not successful. None of us knew her married name at that time. Another friend from Eastern, Maggie Devine, saw this obituary pop up on a funeral home site from her old neighborhood in South Philly and recognized your Mom.

Please know that Maggie posted this obituary on the Eastern Ski Tours FB site and other ski tour escorts who knew her are posting their condolences.

Our thoughts & prayers go out to you and your family. Sad that we never got to reconnect. God Bless and may the warm, happy memories of your Mom be what you cling to.
