“ I agree with Deacon Rich Roenbeck's observation that Bin's contributions during our four years in the Diocese of Trenton Diaconate Formation Program, were gold nuggets of insight that helped everyone grow in their understanding of the subject material.

There is one additional gold nugget that we'll never forget, and that was the BIG BAG OF PRETZELS (with mustard of course,) that Bin would bring for a class snack.

It was his signature favorite. What a doughy salt delight matched with that yellow boardwalk style mustard.

When the professor called a class "breaktime", everyone rushed over to the snack table to empty Bin's bag of baker's delights.

“ Bin and I were classmates for four years in the Diocese of Trenton Diaconate Formation Program. He was, unquestionably, the spiritual center of the Class of 2013. Bin did not speak up in class all that often, but when he did it was pure gold!

A great man .. a wonderful family man ... and a deacon's deacon! I will cherish our friendship and deacon brotherhood for the rest of my life.

Rest easy, Brother ... you are always in our prayers, as is Margie and the family.
