

Brigita Pasaitis

July 29, 2025

Brigita Pasaitis affectionally known as Bridget passed away peacefully on July 29, 2025. Bridget lived a quiet life and was known for her kindness, humility, compassion, gentleness, laughter and joking manner. She cherished the time she spent with her caregivers and neighbors.

Her family (Bridget, her sister Lydia, mother and father) were famous aerial entertainers in the circus world as The Rob Cimse Co, the flying motorcycle. High up in the air on staging, without a safety net, Bridget's performance was breathtaking. She glorified beauty, strength and athleticism as she performed around the world.

Bridget leaves behind her legacy of entertainment that brought looks of astonishment, excitement and awe.
