“ Carolbeth was my nurse manager for many years in the ER. She was very professional and empathetic to her patients and the staff. She taught me so much professionally and personally. I admired her strength and patience especially in the setting she worked her long career.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Chromiak, Phillips and Kelly family. As others have mentioned, I have many fond memories of Carolbeth. I called her a friend and colleague from St. Agnes Medical Center and Jefferson Methodist Hospital. One of my favorite memories of Carolbeth was when she lent me some of her blue crystal jewelry to wear at my oldest daughter’s wedding. She loved pearls and crystals but would never wear them during her work as the ED Nursing Director. She would always be the best dressed at other functions, like the Methodist Fashion Show, or the St. Agnes reunion. She was a passionate voice for patients, families, and her nurses. Carolbeth instilled a commanding sense of true commitment to her nursing team and she would not settle for excuses or distractions. She did have an enormous heart and went out of her way to make everyone feel included and special. Her life’s story is a compelling one and I am so saddened by the loss of her energy and spirit. God bless her and keep this truly wonderful person, wife, mother, grandmother, friend and nurse. Sincerely, Terri Heavens

“ "Merry Christmas, Carolbeth, and Happy Birthday!" So many wishes and so many years... We knew each other since she was 5 and I was 6..... "My name is Carolbeth. I was born just before Christmas and 'Carol' is from 'Christmas Carol' and 'Beth' from Bethlehem." So we were all introduced in Sister Marian Vincent's class to the pretty little girl with the flowing curls in her hair.

Carolbeth was immensely popular throughout those Sacred Heart School years but it just made her more humble. She was always kind and caring - never having a bad word or comment toward anyone, least of all that "Irish Kid", as she called me, even though she got some torment from him in 7th grade. It's because I LIKED her - we all did. She was an angel, in appearance, actions and in her singing and musical ability. So now she joins with the other angels this Christmas Day - a great loss for her loving family and all who knew her but a gain for those in that heavenly choir.

Merry Christmas, Carolbeth and Happy Birthday!

“ Condolences to the family! I was her neighbor for about 20 years. Our children grew up together. Carol and I both fed the homeless cats in the area. What a wonder neighbors they all were. Thank you Carol for lending me your wonderful son Michael to love he is like one of my own! Rest in Paradise!

“ We had so much fun together in grade school, high school orchestra and work at St. Agnes Medical Center. CarolBeth convinced me to leave Albert Einstein Medical Center and to work at St. Agnes! In 7 th grade we performed together, “Singing in the Rain”, dancing, twirling our umbrellas and singing so proudly!!! We practiced that routine intensely at her house on Dickinson St. I have so many fond memories of Carolbeth and I thanked her for all the joy she gave me!! I will always remember her and her pr
