“ Dear Ed, Lou and I are so sorry for your loss. I really didn't know Cathy that well until Andrew went to St. John's and I saw her pick Andrew up when Linda couldn't. What a wonderful, sweet and caring person. She will never be forgotten. Prayers go out to your family. RIP Cathy. ❤️

“ Our deepest and heartfelt sympathies: Cathy was such a beautiful person who could always brighten your day – just with a simple conversation. From our days at St Gabriel's to our Glassboro community, she would unselfishly share her peaceful and loving nature with everyone she met – a gift she has certainly passed along to her children.

“ Eddie, there are no words that can comfort you and the boys right now. The loss of Cathy's physical presence as made a light go out in our world. But I am sure that Cathy will continue to watch over you and the boys for the rest of your lives. Whenever you see a butterfly, or a robin that could be her letting you know she is near. I pray that the Blessed Mother will comfort you as well as the love, prayers and hugs you will be getting in the days ahead.

Ed, to say I'm shocked would be an understatement. Cathy may have gone home to God, but she will always be with you and the boys. I recall when you told me about your love for Cathy and that you were going to get married and a wonderful wedding it was that Kathy and I enjoyed. Ed, my joy has been to watch your banking career grow, your time and talent being given to your community but always I have enjoyed seeing the GREAT love you and Cathy have for each other, your sons and your extended family. I am out of town and can't be with you but you, the boys and all Cathy's loved ones are in my daily prayers and mass. I will be in touch when I return in early June.

Ed and Sons, Martha and Sisters and extended family....May the love of family and friends surround you in this sorrowful time. Cathy was a beautiful soul. She touched many people. When I think of Cathy, I smile. Although her life was shortened, her legacy of smiles will be seen for many years to come.
