“ I reminisce of beautiful, compassionate always spoke her mind in support of the love her nephew Ricky & I shared . Cecilia and I attended ceramic classes together a true inspiration. Sadly our beautiful family diminished (I guess it was God's will, I always treasure Cecilia love& support of the love her nephew & I shared. A outstanding woman who will never be forgotten. I'll see you again forever with all my love to one classy woman. Your niece in marriage -Frances Jean Addington Lignore ~~

“ Sandy and I were sisters in law and good friends. We matured together, like fine wine, when we were young marrieds. She was a feisty, independent woman, and will be sorely missed. Rest in peace, my friend! With much love, Aunt Leslie.
