“ I'm heart broken. I just found out one minute ago that Charlie passed away and I am absolutely heart broken. Me and my family adored Charlie Bernard. How could you not adore Charlie. Sweet, bright, kind, funny—a delight. I am sorry for not attending the funeral, as I said I was unaware until this minute. I would have loved to have shown my respects. Please accept my sincere condolences for this huge loss. Charlie—bigger than life—will live on in our hearts forever.

“ Had the pleasure of being under his supervision at the Voting machine warehouse. What patience he had working with a bunch of young men and making us into a workforce to deliver the machines each election. Always would say, Good morning lad, how's your mom doing. I used his attitude in life to guide me thru life's twist and turns, and as a group leader in the voting machine warehouse. Will always have a place in my heart and fine memories in my mind. Prayers and condolences to his family.
