“ I first met Chris when he was 15 years old. He was my girlfriend's youngest brother. I had a 63 Corvette, and we were in Wildwood. The car was having trouble shifting, and Chris offered to come with me as I searched for a repair shop. After a few minutes the car would not go into gear. It did however go in reverse. We must have drove for 15 minutes backwards, laughing our heads off, before we found a repair shop. Chris was a great kid, good looking, smart, and fun to be around. The disease he suffered with changes personalities. It can make you cruel towards those who love you the most. Chris was always kind and respectful to me. But I saw him push others away. He always knew he was loved. Especially by Mom and Dad who always worried for him. Chris in God's care now, free of that horrible disease and any pain. Go easy up there with Mark and Billy.

“ I will remember Chris as a fun loving young guy who was the fastest guy in the field at our city vs suburban guy football games at the Lakes. He would beat you on every play and then come back and make you laugh. Chris was a friend to everyone he met and his larger than life personality will be missed. God speed and blessings to his family and all that mourn his passing.

“ One of the funny memories that I have of Chris is when we were young. He was always so funny and would joke around with the younger cousins. I can remember one time a few of the girl cousins and I were playing house and we were fighting over who was going to get to be married to Chris!

Another memory I have is of Chris and my brother George imitating the Three Stooges. And while I smile now thinking about it.... It was actually really annoying sometimes! There are only so many “ you want a knuckle sandwich?”, “ oh, a wise guy!”, and “ nyuk, nyuk, nyuk!” that you can take!

Rest in peace Chris. Will you be missed? Soitenly!!

“ Some of my fondest memories as a kid are with my Uncle Chris. From late night camp fires at Grandmom and Pops trailer at Big Timber Lake, to the many many fishing trips off the beaches of Hereford and Townsends Inlets, to the offshore trips on Miss Avalon II and Uncle John Summers 24' Grady White; I will never forget the incredible experiences we had and the impact you had on my childhood. Thank You Uncle Chris!

Love always your nephew,

“ I always love the wonderful chaos of the family's South Philly Christmas eve gatherings - and Chris was always a good sport to welcome my son Lucas climb & jump all over him. Few times I worried Lucas might knock Chris & that chair completely over, but Chris always had a great smile about it!

Love you Chris! May the eternal light of the Blessed Mother shine upon you as her embrace of loving compassion keeps you forever in peace. 🙏

“ I want to remember Chris as the man he was before he was taken by a horrible and cruel disease. I knew him as a loving, fun uncle. He'd been a star football player with EOM and Bishop Neumann High School. He was a welder, working on ships at the Navy Yard, and the comic relief to his serious oldest brother Billy and his equally funny middle brother Mark. Chris' father and brother both served in the Marine Corps, and Chris spent many hours at the VFW and Catholic War Veterans posts in the capacity of social member, aiding with veterans benefits and services. Chris was a diehard sports fan. Many weekends he could be seen on the couch, cheering on Notre Dame, Philly Sports Teams and (regrettably) the Dallas Cowboys.

Chris found the humor in any situation. He was proud of his family and cheerful until his last days.

“ As a kid I remember all of my Uncle's being larger than life. Just the biggest personalities. Uncle Chris was the sweetest, and he could compete with uncle Mark for the funniest. Uncle Chris was magnetic. He could light up a room. Some of the best memories I have is of the Uncle's dancing to grandma got ran over by a reindeer in Grandmom and Pop's house. The holidays were always so much fun. Uncle Chris wore a tough mask but he was sensitive and he fell more times than he could get up, but he knew deep down how much he was loved. He knew it right up to the end. I'm glad you are free now and in peace, Uncle Chris, I will miss you and carry the love I have for you with me always.
