“ Dennis My Love, My One and Only True Love ❤️ there is not a second that goes by that you are not on my mind and in my heart ! I miss you and love you more than I ever thought was physically possible. You came into my life when I needed love the most, when I need you the most, you have shown me exactly how I should have been treated from day 1, you never stopped loving me, you continued to love me more and more with each day that came. You always swore you were done with babies, you had your 2 boys, I had my girl and 2 boys, together they were all ours, we were one big happy blended family. But I kept pushing to have your baby, like always, you gave in and gave more lol ... thankfully God had the same plans in store for us and our family, unfortunately we miscarried with our first love child but very quickly after God blessed us not once but twice. We had our absolutely perfect gorgeous baby boy Kylo in November 2020 & then your very first and only absolutely perfect gorgeous baby girl Evie in June 2023. Seeing the joy in you as we had our babies is something I will never ever forget. I can't help but realize that God blessed us with 2 absolutely perfect gorgeous babies to prepare me for the day he took you away from me. The daddy son bond you & Kylo have is unbreakable and so amazing. He still says daddy is his bestest friend in the whole entire world and he asks for you each and every single day. The daddy's little girl bond with Evie, your princess is truly one of a kind and can never ever be broken or replaced. She talks to you every single day, asks for you many times a day and still to this day when asked "who's the most beautiful baby girl in the whole entire world?" She smiles so big and very happily says "ME" she loved when you used to ask her that. I haven't been able to go through photos or videos much because I hurt so god damn much and just start to hyperventilate and cry uncontrollably. But I pushed myself to go through some with the babies, I always hated when my camera or your camera somehow got put on "live" but now I am so thankful because we get to hear your voice more and see that absolutely freaking perfect million dollar smile on your face. I miss you more than words can ever express My Love. I am so broken, pissed off (not at you My Love) I have so many different emotions *and I haven't a clue as to how to even begin to process them. I see you in our babies every single time I look at them, it's the most bittersweet moments for sure. I would without a doubt do anything and everything to have you back, to even have just a few moments more with you My Love, just to thank you for giving me the most amazing 13 years of my life, for showing me what it truly means to be loved and the true meaning and feeling of love. Even with feeling this pain, the pain I never imagined possible, I would do it all over exactly the same way over and over again. I'm so sad we didn't get married this summer, but I did the next best thing & had the priest bless our wedding rings and I married you, on the morning of your funeral, in church, I whispered in your ear, poured my heart out and slipped your ring on your big strong finger. I choose you My Love, in this lifetime, in previous lifetimes (when we were together as the medium said) and in every single lifetime on every single plane, I WILL CHOOSE YOU MY LOVE. Until we meet again, I will miss you and continue to love you more and more with each day that comes. I Love You Dennis, Love Always and Forever, Christine

“ My cousin Dennis, every memory I've shared with you were nothing short of a great time, from our childhood years, to you recently reconnecting with me to be my friend. In the grasp of this crazy world whatever struggles you were going thru you rose above and were always kind, caring, and inviting and "never" failed to make me laugh. I am glad your family got to meet ours and you will greatly be missed. Rest easy cuz

“ I remember babysitting Dennis when he was little. He was such a pleasant little boy and mischievous. But so pleasant to be around. My sister and I were friends with his Mom Lisa and when they wanted to go out , I was the babysitter. I haven't seen Dennis is years, but I doubt very much that funny personality changed, or his beautiful heart, as for he was such a great kid. Rest peacefully Dennis with Mom and Kristen, I know they were waiting for you with lot of hugs and kisses. Sleep gently God's new gentle giant. 😇💙
