“ This is Father Mike again.
In reaching out to the family, I meant to say "Joseph" as well as her children.
Dolores was a great and grand person. Her memory has touched many lives and will continue to do so.

Thank you Father Mike for always thinking of her. Mom always told us you sent cards and always called her. Mom was the best and we miss her terribly. 💔

“ When I came to Sacred Heart Parish many years ago, Dolores was already part of the parish staff, Along with Ida Farrell and Mary McNasby she helped keep the rectory running smoothly. Her warmth and love were such that she made everyone feel welcome. I reach out to John, her children and grand and great grandchild at this difficult loss.

St. Paul writes that there are in the end 3 great virtues: Faith, Hope and Love.

Dolores' Faith was deep and rich and showed in the way she lived. Her Hope was strong especially as she battled these last few years for health; but most of all her Love showered on her family and friends as well as strangers. Paul finally stated simply: "The greatest of these is LOVE--it does not come to an end."

May the LOVE that now sustains Dolores also sustain and comfort all her family and friends.

Peace & Love!

Fr. Mike Sheehan

Because I twisted my back, I am unable to join you at Dolores Mass, but will be with you in spirit.
