She was a loving wife, mother, mommom and great grandmother and aunt, whose gentle strength and steady presence touched all who knew her.

Dolores was a woman of quiet strength and generous spirit. She found joy in life's simple pleasures. She was a devoted Catholic who included everyone in her prayers daily. She loved sitting on Galloway Street and eventually sat in front of her room at her assisted living facility greeting everyone walking by. She became an active participant in all activities and won many rounds of bingo. She loved eating good food and going to the shore to hang out with family. She appreciated going to her grandchildren's sporting events and cheering them on.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lenin "Kinky" Smith; her son, Michael Smith; her grandson, Bobby Skrzypiec; her sisters, Margie Bamberger (George), Anna Mae Smith (Edward), Marie Brown, Theresa Vogts (Richard); and her brother, Joseph Brown (Chickie).

She is survived by her two daughters, Pat Garozzo (Lou), Roseann Osadchuk (Roman); her five grandchildren, Keith Skrzypiec (Amy), Chris Skrzypiec, Caitlyn Kravitz (Matt), Allie Worrell, and Bohdan Osadchuk; her two great-grandchildren, Sydney Skrzypiec and Benjamin Kravitz; and her sister-in-law, Tillie Brown. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews and dear friends. The family wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude to the staff and residents of Springfield Crossings, who became her second family and filled her life with companionship and comradery.
