“ My heart is broken. Dominic's summer shore home is directly across the street from my friend's shore house where I spend time during the summer months. I was so fortunate to have shared a bottle of wine with Dom at the shore the end of the summer last year. I was also honored to meet his daughter Gina and share some stories about Dom. I got to hug him and tell him I loved him and we made a "date" to share wine again this summer. Dominic, I raise a glass to you and will miss your smiling face and positive attitude.
With Love,

“ Dominic was my next door neighbor at Society Hill Tower's in the 70's. Also saw him numerous times at HUP. He was a great human being and loving individual. He introduced me to one of his many friends. I was a nurse at that time. Will miss him and my prayers to you and the entire family.
Sincerely,

“ I knew Dominic through his work with Children's Hospital and the Bearacuda Board. Dom always had such a light about him. He was kind, had a great laugh, and taught us all a ton about Italian wine! I can't imagine what a difficult time this must be for your family but I pray that the memories and laughter you shared bring some comfort. What an incredible gift to have known him.

“ *Rachel and Family:
Dominic was a VP at Taylor Hospital when I worked there and we spent many an hour in meetings. He had the most charming smile (with a glint in his eye) and a chuckle I can still remember. My sincerest condolences on your loss. He was a fine man and I feel fortunate to have known him and you, Rachel. May your memories of your life together sustain you at this difficult time. “Dominic always was, and will remain, a beacon of "success" - a man who loved his family, who built a career based on his integrity and caring attitude for others, and who enjoyed good food and good wine - especially when shared with those he loved and cared about. He will be missed, but his presence will continue with those who were fortunate enough to have been his friend.
