“ Hi Aunt Doris!

Still thinking about you. We all are. We miss you. You are now #6 on the list for a bench at Rittenhouse Square! Yippeeee! Regardless, I still sit on a bench and enjoy our chats. The Mayor of Atlantic City sucks!!!! I'm about to ride there personally to talk about the planting of the tree. I'll bang on the door at the County office until I get a response. I won't be ignored.

Hope you are enjoying the afterlife with everyone. So glad you are finally out of pain. We all miss you but know we will all see you again. My Mom really misses you. She will be ok though, no need to worry. Your girls are keeping in contact with her. That makes her happy which makes us happy.

Miss you, love you and will talk to you again soon.

Ginnie Anne.

“ Hi Aunt Doris! Thinking about you, as always. You are now #16 on the list for a bench at Rittenhouse Square! WhoooHoooo! I knew this process would take some time so I'm being patient. I already reached out to the Mayor of Atlantic City, NJ to see if there was some space available to plant a tree for you. So far, nothing but I will keep bugging until I get my request honored. you know me, I don't stop until I complete a task!

I think about you often. I hope you are enjoying your time in the afterlife with Uncle Pat, Patrick, Grandma, Grandpop, Aunt Patsy, Aunt Sissy, Uncle Sonny and all your closest friends and neighbors.

I will check in with you again soon. I miss you.

Love Ginnie Anne...xxxoxxx

“ BTW, Tommy is doing well. Much better after Hurricane Ian and losing his house and several neighbors and friends as a result. He believes that you are watching over him and keeping him and his pets safe. That confirmation came after leaving the shelter and moving into an apartment with a neighbor named Doris!!!! He said "Aunt Doris is here.....my new good neighbor is named Doris! She is watching over me and keeping me safe" Sooooo...you are still keeping an eye on all of us!!! Thanks Aunt!!!!
