“ Hi - I'm Steve Gilmore bassist, and for several years as a young man I had the pleasure of playing with Ed mostly in the Pocono Mountains during sumertime. Ed was a really great guy and a fine musician. I just learned of Ed's passing from the AFM's taps publication. I have many fond memories from working and learning from Ed. Renee my deepest condolences.

“ Ed has been a wonderful friend for over 70 years since we first met at Temple University back in the 1950s. It was always, without exception, a joy to be in his company. Conversation was easy and filled with anecdotes, jokes and humor that stick with me to this day. We musicians were in complete awe of his pianism and musicianship. Rene: you've been such a wonderful wife, collaborator, companion and caregiver. Bless you both!

“ Sadly, we who knew Ed have lost a man who always had a big smile no matter what he was going through. We'll miss his wit, humor and warmth. He, along with Rene, always remembered my birthday by serenading me on the phone with the Birthday song. So long, dear friend.

“ Whether it was a musical event or sharing a dinner, Ed made it special by his congenial personality and readiness with a joke or funny story. He exuded warmth. There were many facets to his impressive pianistic talent; yet he was very modest. A moment I'll always cherish is having Rene and Ed honor Romeo and I by performing at our 40th wedding anniversary celebration.

“ Dear Ed, there are so many fun memories we shared, particularly one that stands out vividly was the many summers we spent in Boothbay Harbor, Maine with Rose Marie. Keep on...keep on playing.

Ed was my friend and fellow singer in Temple University's Concert Choir, 1956 and 1957. His remarkable talent was highlighted by his perfect pitch sensitivity. Bob Page, our conductor, never needed a pitch pipe when Ed was present. I remember his kindness, sense of humor and great musical talent. May his memory be a blessing,

Ed was a friend whom I met at the Berkshire Choral Institute. We became good friends and looked forward to reconnecting each year. He was an enormously talented pianist and a good, loyal friend. I'm very sad to hear of his passing. I'm so glad that he found such happiness in Rene (who I regrettably never met) ,but offer her my sincere condolences.
