“ They say it's the little things in life that mean so much. How true! As the testimonies show, she thought of ways to touch those she knew. Ellen's baking was a way she showed her appreciation for others. I was on the receiving end of one of her special cakes. Thanks Ellen! I know you are baking for St. Peter and the crew.

“ Ellen thanks for being a good friend to my parents during my father’s health issues. Thanks for your kindness in securing the items on my mother’s shopping list and your visits to the house to make sure they were doing ok. We shared many laughs during these troubled times but most of all this thanks for getting me Snapple during your shop rite trips. I will never forget your kindness and your sense of humor. My condolences to the Nehr family especially Tom who I met as a child when he and my dad played for the Ravens the best softball team of its time! Rest in peace Ellen enjoy your next life and I’ll see you on the rebound. Love Rick McMurtrie
