

George E. Bradley

February 25, 2024

George E. Bradley, passed away peacefully at his home on February 25, 2024 at the age of 85. He was a honorable Army veteran, former Mummer, lifelong Irishman, and eternal Frank Sinatra fan. He had a love for eating that was only surpassed by his tenacity with the TV remote (being able to click through 4 channels between the flash of lightning and the subsequent thunder). George enjoyed his frequent trips to Wildwood, eating out, cheering on the Phillies, and spending time at home with his family watching his old television programs.

George was the beloved husband of the late Lorraine C. (nee Binck) and loving father of Michael and Lori Bradley. He is predeceased by his parents, William J., Sr. and Mary (nee Munion) Bradley and his siblings: Mary Williams, Bobby Bradley, Jack Bradley, and Bill Bradley. He leaves behind his cousins and friends. Relatives and friends are invited to his Viewing, Thursday, February 29, 2024 from Rogers Funeral Home, Inc., 1426-30 South 3rd Street, Philadelphia, PA 19147 after 6 PM til 8 PM and again Friday, March 1, 2024 after 8:30 AM til 9:30 AM followed by his Mass of Christian Burial at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, 3rd and Wolf Sts. at 10:30 AM. Interment will be SS Peter & Paul Cemetery, Springfield, PA, where Military Honors will be rendered. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation in George's name to the St. Jude Shrine (www.stjudeshrine.org) or by mail at St. Jude Shrine, 512 West Saratoga Street, Baltimore, MD 21201.
