Touching Words from his Daughter, Gloria:

My Dad, Herb Faulls, took his last breath on this earth on February 2, 2018 at 4:24pm. He was 66 years old. His wife(my stepmom) Janet was the biggest blessing in his life. She took care of him every day like a loving wife does especially in his battle with cancer over the last 15 months. She has been at his side for every treatment, every doctor's appointment and anything and everything he needed. I know he will never be satisfied until they are together again.

My Dad was the youngest of 5 children and his siblings and parents adored him. His brother, my Uncle John and wife Aunt Jo never gave up on him even though that would have been the easy thing to do. My grandfather William Faulls and grandmother Ruth Holmes Faulls have welcomed their youngest son into God's grace where I'm sure my Pop Pop is giving my Dad, his baby, the "secret extra bacon" at breakfast the same way he did when he was a kid.

My Dad has a wonderful son Anthony who looks up to him and loves him and who would never use the word "step" before Dad in referring to my father.

My Dad has two fantastic grandchildren, my kids, Johnny and Gigi who he was in awe of and who made him proud to be a Pop Pop.

My Dad has 25 years of sobriety. He has helped many others on their journey in sobriety and will be and should be an example of what is possible through God's grace.

My Dad had so many reasons to be thankful in life and ALWAYS reminded himself and all of us what they were. I thank him for that lesson and want him to know he is loved and missed by me his daughter, and our entire family. God Bless you Dad.

“ My name is Ruth Ann Buscemi-Allen. Herbie is my Uncle. My Mom's brother. I have many memories of Uncle Herbie but my last one was going 2 St. Petersburg Beach and having lunch with him, Aunt Janet, and my youngest sister Brenda. Me and Uncle Herbie had 1big thing in common... Neither one of us had a filter! We said whatever the hell we wanted to. Didn't matter where we were or who was around! Loved that about him! We laughed alot. I will miss him. Aunt Janet n Gloria, my heart goes out to the both of you❤️. Mom, Uncle Johnny n Uncle Bobby Im sorry😭.

I met Herb only 4 years ago. But Ruth Ann Buscemi- Allen's mention of his outstanding honesty highlights exactly what I noticed about him immediately and through his illness. Herb's honesty, combined with wit, humor, and kindness, made it a privilege to speak with him. All through his very difficult illness, he was a man of integrity, bravery, kindness and good humor. Herb's wonderful traits were enhanced by Janet, who shares and supported his best qualities. I am lucky to have met Herb and Janet.
