July 22, 2024

Ismael Perez Bautista, passed away peacefully on July 22, 2024 at the age of 39. Ismael was a father to Allison Perez Mozo and the youngest of 9 siblings. He was very loved by his family was always willing to help everyone in any way that he could mostly by helping with house repairs or paint jobs. He will always be remembered by his smile the jokes he always made nobody was ever saved from him when it came to funny nicknames. He will be missed but it's not a goodbye, it's a til we meet again.

Letter from his daughter Allison Mozo:

I want to start off by saying that I love the times we spent together. Even though there were very few moments that we got to spend together. I will always cherish and remember those moments. I love the memories that we have together. Especially when we would watch soccer, and chant "Cruz azul tu tu tu". I love the way you carried yourself as a person. You always stood on business. I love you a lot and I always will. You were always the one person I knew I could come to and have a deep conversation. Even though you are not with us anymore. Your soul will always be here with me. I love you Papá always and forever.
