James W. Busk

“A great soul serves everyone all the time. A great soul never dies. It brings us together again and again.”

James W Busk, widely admired and respected, peacefully passed, surrounded by love on May 17, 2020. Born in Philadelphia, PA on August 16, 1937 to James and Ada Busk. He is remembered with love by Patricia McFadden, and their sons James, Michael(Paveena), Patrick(Erica), and David and his 8 grandchildren that he loved more then anything else Madeline, Courteney, Brooke, Amanda, Kyle, Paige, Abigail, Gregory and 1 great grandchild Deaglan. Survived and missed by his brother Gerald(Sandy)Busk and nephew Gerald(Jennifer)Busk.

Jim had a knack for living life boldly, without limits. His life was full of rich history that is usually only found in books. He was smart, creative, innovative with a personality larger then life. Stories of his past and present never failed to captivate an audience. He started with a modest upbringing in Fishtown to building an impressive empire of his own and a family he couldn't have been more proud of, his greatest achievement in life.

Jim was a social guy always out or visiting with family and friends. He loved getting together with his sons the most, whether they were getting a few drinks and a bite to eat or just over their houses. If he wasn't doing that you could find him at the casinos, in Fishtown or down in Wildwood. He loved being on a boat in the summer sun down the shore.

He had a very strong will. He stood his ground and always stood by his beliefs. He wasn't afraid to go against the grain. He lived life on his terms until the very end.

There are so many things we love and will miss about him. His spirit will live on in us.

How blessed we are to have something that makes saying good-bye so hard.

“ Sending love to all during this difficult time. Mr. Busk was 1 of a kind and as I hear more and more stories about him, I wish I could hear them directly from him because I know they'd be more hilarious! I'm certain his memory will live forever. Love you guys!
