“ I have many memories of my youth. Some of my fondest are from Earp St. Uncle Jim and Aunt Aggie were a second set of parents to me. I often think back to those early days and wonder how they dealt with all of us crazy kids. But they did. I will miss Uncle Jim and his sense of humor, walking into the house and being greeted with a "Hey Pal". The door was always open. You will be missed but remain in my memory. always. God speed Pal.
