“ When I worked at the Bridesburg Recreation Center we referred to him as Big Jim. He had a big presence and a big attitude. One look from him would set you straight...he didn't say much but his actions spoke volumes.

He came to my dad's viewing and that was the first time I'd seen him in decades and he was still big Jim. It meant a lot to see him there especially since most of my siblings knew him from the Bridesburg Rec too.

My sincere condolences to his family and friends. May your fond memories of Jim bring you comfort.
