“ We are dear friends of Meg and John. We are deeply saddened by their loss of Uncle John. Whenever we were in his company, his warm smile lit up the room and you immediately felt welcomed. He made such an impression of unconditional love and will be missed by all. With our deepest sympathy, Craig and Jane

“ Our family is so saddened to see that Father Bradley has passed. We so enjoyed his time at St. Kevins. we prayed for his recovery few years back thru that terrible set back and was so blessed to have him returned to all of us for a few more years. We had sent him Eagles stuff to cheer him back then and continued to keep him in our prayers. Now we add all his family to our prayers as you continue on without him. He is our special angel now with the ultimate ascension to be with his beloved Lord.

“ I’m Meg’s brother in law Chuck (Johns brother). Uncle John is not technically our uncle but he was so near and dear to me, my wife Lynn, our children Lindsay and Ryan (now grown adults and married), that regardless of bloodlines he was our Uncle! We all love and respect him dearly. I was never ever with the man when I did not feel like I had been touched by an angel! We were so fortunate to have him in our lives and we mourn his passing! God bless Uncle John! ❤️❤️❤️

We so enjoyed Father Bradley at St. Kevin's. He will be greatly missed. We all loved his enthusiasm for the Eagles and Phillies. He is in the arms of our Lord and know we have an angel looking down on us. Missed by the Petroski family.
