“ *Uncle John,
Thank you seems insufficient to say for all the times you were there. You went with me to get an MRI when I had insisted that there was no way I was going in that machine and no one could convince me. You were there when I wanted to buy the condo uptown and asked for you to come look at it and tell me what you thought. I convalesced at your house both times after the knee replacements. When my Mother died, you told me that Gram and Aunt Di had been calling her to join them and they were now all having a good time being together again. My list of thanking you could go on forever. I am so happy that you are pain free and you are with Aunt Di and all your relatives and friends.
Uncle Johnny, I have my memories but I will miss you so much.
All my love,
Debbie AKA Twiggy*
