“ Good morning Johnny John
Its such a beautiful morning today. This weather reminds me of when I used to live with you, and we used to get up in the morning and go outside. It is such a beautiful day out. Not hot. In the shade its nice and Breezy. As soon as I stepped outside, I thought of you. This weather brought back so many memories of me and you. I wish your were here to enjoy it. I'm not going to write a whole novel again. I know this isn't a journal. But i do plan on writing to you all the time. I miss you my love. I love you so much. I'll be back again tonight or tomorrow.

“ I love you John. I can't stop thinking about you, can't stop crying for you. I will continue to pray for you. I want to Thank you for briefly coming to see me last night in my dreams. I remember i saw your face, your beautiful smile, and then you were gone. Please come again soon. You were the greatest of all men. Such a warrior, with all the things you went through in your life, but no matter what, you were always kind and caring towards others. I plan on writing everyday to you or lighting a candle in your honor. 🕯️ . I wish you would have answered me when you had got home. But I thought you didn't want to see anyone and I also thought you were protecting yourself from the virus by staying at home. But I'm hating myself for not stopping by. I love you Johnny John. I'll write again tomorrow. ❤️ 🙏 🥰

“ John I truly love you. You were the MOST caring man in this world with such a beautiful, loving heart. You helped so many people in need. I will never forget you. I wish i had the chance to say goodbye. It is so hard to even write this, with my eyes filled with tears. I am so angry with myself, for not stopping by to say hi. I thought you had so many years ahead of you. Your were always so happy and so healthy. You are such a sweet person. How many strangers you walked by & then stopped, smiled, & said hello. You were always there to make someone's day. I know you missed your son and your parents so, so much, & now is your chance to finally be with them. I would truly love to see you again, so im asking one last favor of you; Please Johnny John, please visit me in my dreams. And you know of course i will come visit you at Calvary. I love you the most. I've learned so much from you. You had a hard life, there is no doubt of that, but you ALWAYS had a smile on your beautiful face and you had a heart of gold. I miss you so much. I love you John. I always will. You will be missed by me and so many more people that you've touched in your life. I hope we can see eachother again one day soon. Rest In Paradise John. 🥹🙏❤️
