“ When you think fondly of Jack you think of a gentle man who loved and cherished his family. You can only remember him in a good way because He was a kind man, hard worker, great sense of humor and had the talent of making you laugh and always fun to be around. If you were lucky enough to know Jack, you know he made the world a better place because he was in it. We are blessed with many cherished, fun memories of Jack. We miss you already. We will keep him in our heart tucked away with good times shared with Jack and will hold his lovely family in our good thoughts and prayers. Joe and Jeannie Trombetta
