“ Dear Lori,

This is to express my deepest sympathy on the death of your dear father.

"May the angels lead him into Paradise; may choirs of angels welcome him; may the martyrs come to meet him; and may he have eternal rest with Lazarus, who once was poor."

To the Dziadon Family~

So sorry to hear of the death of Joe. He was a cousin on my Mother's side of the family. My Mother and his Mom were sisters. We, the Hemko's grew up in Linden, NJ. I remember summers with visits from the Dziadons, Joe came with Miriam for a week. Good memories.

*May God hold all of you in the palm of His hands,
Maria (Campana), Helen (Golan) and Frank Hemko*

Donna, Joey, Lisa, Lori and Danny,

Prayers and warm, loving thought are with all of you during these days and always. Uncle Joey was special and truly a gift to me. He was always so good to me as was your mom. I will always cherish the kindness and love he showed me. His friendship with Bill was an extra bonus. So glad we had that last visit with him. Take care and know we are always here. Love and prayers, Bill and Lorraine
