I loved my dear lifeling friend. Went I first met joe it seemed like we knew each other forever. Being friends with joe made me a better, stronger and greater person. He is with god now but he will always be here and part of everyone he knew. I will honor him and his wish by being as good as he was to all and by doing for others.

“ Joe was the most wonderful, kind man I have met in a long time. He lived on the same street as my son and my grandchildren, he was so very good to the boys, he supported our school, John Paul II Regional School by donations to our Golf Tournament yearly. I served with Joe as an EM and his kindnesses will not be forgotten. We were all very lucky to have known Joe. He will be missed and know that he made a difference to many people that knew him. He loved his family and talked about his nephew a great deal. . Lois Schuhl, Vice Principal, John Paul II Regional School.
