“ I worked with Josey at the IRS on Roosevelt Blvd. She and I sat at desks along side each other on the back row, with an isle between us. We often shared laughs about some of the people around us. One woman in particular who was on the loud side, and often suddenly spoke out about whatever topic she had on her mind at the moment, was responsible for many a good laugh between us. Josey would look over at me at the same time and we'd start laughing. Josey helped me keep my sanity. She was a hard and meticulous worker, whatever the task. She was sweet, kind, thoughtful and a friend. I'm sorry I didn't try to get in touch with her sooner. Maybe some day we'll meet again.

Sincerely,

“ I can remember like it was yesterday Aunt Josephine and Uncle Dicks wedding day. She was the most beautiful bride and I always remember thinking how elegant she looked. It was my earliest memory of attending such a special event. Josephine was a devoted wife and mother and was always so proud of her son and daughters and their wonderful families. She was a very special person and I am glad she was my Aunt.

Love to the family.
