“ I'm so sorry to hear this. My condolences to her family. We were great friends when we were teenagers and often thought about her through the years. I would always ask Marge about her. Gone too soon. R.I.P. Kate

“ Kate was my Aunt, im her niece little Bridget. I don't know where to start. She was the youngest of my moms sisters. I remember being a kid a just thinking she was the coolest. I loved her style n her spirit. She was the aunt i had a lot of firsts with. First ballet, like my little sister Jacklin. She cut my bangs when my mom wouldn't let me. And called my baby hair wispys which is nit a word but a word ill never forget and continue to use. She bought me cool clothes. And even a pair of nine west boots that I wore till my feet came through the bottom because they were just like aunt Kate's. Shed my daughters God mother also. I loved my aunt Kate like a big sister. When I think of her I think big red hair n a laugh with a smile like no other. I think of how much she loved being Irish lol. I take comfort in knowing my grandma was there to take her home. I love you Aunt Kate, and we will meet again. Till then.....

“ She is my God Mother. I remember fondly celebrating Halloween. She was very close to her faith. She took me to my first Ballet performance of the Nutcracker. Treated me as an adult while still a kid and was always up for anything dying my hair funky colors or taking me to movies I've already seen dozens of times. She was such a happy soul. I will celebrate everything spooky and witchy extra hard this year. Love her niece and God daughter Jacklin
