Kathleen Leemon-Dispas (nee Leemon), age 65, of Philadelphia, PA, peacefully passed away on November 25th at home, surrounded by her loved ones, after a long battle with pancreatic cancer.

Born on December 11, 1959, to Joseph and Johanna (nee Prusinowski) Leemon, Kathy grew up in the Pennsport section of Philadelphia. She graduated with honors from Bishop Neumann Business School. After marrying her best friend, Michael Dispas, she moved to South Jersey, where she embraced life "at the shore," enjoying boating, fishing, and crabbing.

Above all, she cherished the time spent with her daughter, Ashley, and her grandchildren, Michael and Lily. One of her favorite holiday traditions was making her famous gingerbread houses with them.

Kathleen will be deeply missed by her friends, family, and all who knew her. Her loved ones will forever cherish her memories.

She is predeceased by her parents, her brother Joseph Leemon II, and her sister Geraldine Leemon-Howlett. Kathy is survived by her husband, Michael Dispas; her daughter, Ashley Calvi (Patrick); her grandchildren, Michael and Lily; and her brothers, James Leemon (Gail), Thomas Leemon, and Stanley Leemon.
