“ I can't believe that Mommy is gone.. I still can't wrap my head around this.. Pat my Tony told me that he ran into you in the park and you told him about Mommy. I loved her so so much. She always told me that she fell in love with me the first time she seen me in my coach. I'm so heartbroken... I loved her like my own mom...

“ I am sorry for Kathleen's loss. I remember her as a sweet girl. I spent some time at Kathleen's home when visiting Maureen. Their parents were very nice to me.

On behalf of her son's grandchildren and her great grandson I Patrick VanDerVort would love to thank you for your kind words from the bottom of my heart and more than that ❤️ my whole family is so appreciative of the kind words. My mom was just a angel on earth and I'm not saying that because she was my mother I say that because she was and she took the soul of me and my brothers with her. I'm so thankful for the 43 years of life I got to be with her she's never 1 time shunned me or turned her back on me and believe you me I had given her plenty of reasons for her to do so. #crushed# speechless #empty
