I am so sad and sorry!!! I remember, when I first met Leo during Linda McCloskey annual Christmas Eve party. I knew he had a big heart and smile, just like their host. His laugh could easily fill the room. In 2019, I was able to bring over my partner to the Christmas party. I remember the greatest life advice Leo could give to me and my partner, is to say " I love you" to each other every single night before we go to bed. Unfortunately due to Covid, I decide to play it safe for 2020 party and stay home. Leo for the few times we have met, I want to say "Thank You" for the life advice you give me. Because after that night, I have been practicing it every single night since then.

Cheers to you Sir!!!

And to Jeannette my condolences to you and your family, Leo was a great man. And we will miss him dearly. I am sorry to be late on this news.

So sorry for this loss to the Rahill Family. I grew up across the street from them and spent a good deal of time in their home. They all looked out for each other and especially Leo as he was the youngest. God bless them Cookie
