“ My older sister Linda and I didn't always see eye to eye, but she always had tons of advice for me and a big heart. She could make me laugh harder than anyone else. She was "the cool one". In the early days of the pandemic, she was always a bit of light in our day as we muddled through home school during the first lockdown in Berlin. We were calling each other constantly, even when she didn't feel well. She once wrote me that her current life status was holding it all together with one bobby pin. She coaxed her granddaughter Maeve in from the cold outside when it snowed with Magic Milk. She got really good at making candy buffets and tailgate parties for the kids' birthdays. She was so proud of all her kids. She really was terrified of the Easter Bunny. She made all our grandmother's fav cookies for Christmas: Peanut Butter Kisses, Sugar Cookies, Russian Teacakes. She was taken from us too soon and I will always miss her until we meet again. Love you so much, Lin!
