“ Dear Albert, Al, Tina, and Krista: Still a bit in shock - sending your beautiful families so much love and thoughts for healing and comfort. We're so so sorry that we could not attend Linda's Mass today in Philly. Please know that we were there in heart an spirit and would have been there if at all possible. Personal prayers and love were being offered at the time of the Service and continue everyday. Linda is a beautiful soul and has left beautiful memories with everyone she has touched. Love and Healing Carol, Jeff and Jenny.

“ Big Al, Al, Krista & Family, we are so saddened by the loss of Linda. Our hearts are so heavy, when one of us is hurting we all hurt. Nothing I say will help ease your heartache & pain but I'm hoping that the memories you have with Linda make the pain a little more bearable. Linda was a wonderful person that will be missed immensely by our entire family, Thanksgiving will not be the same, but I know she will be there in spirit. We love you Xo. Love, Erin, Thomas & Thomas John

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to Big Al, Al and Krista, Tina and Joe and all the family of this great lady. This is an unbearable loss to all who knew Linda. She is a kind, considerate , loving woman to all her family, friends and people that she had just met. We will miss you at our dinners at "Augie's Restaurant ". Our hearts are very heavy with grief but you're a part of that same heart so you will live there forever! Condolences to all.
