“ Dear Family, I worked with Lori for many years at the TU Libraries and just wanted to say how sorry I was to hear of her death. It came as a real shock to me and filled me with sadness. Though just a co-worker during this time, I always looked forward to interactions with her because she was just a very nice person. She also did her job expertly. When I placed book orders with Lori, no matter the complications, she handled them professionally and efficiently. But, more than anything else, she was just a nice, friendly, fun person. She will certainly be missed in Charles Library.

With great sympathy, Fred Rowland
