

Louis W. Jung

September 4, 2021

Louis W. Jung, affectionately known to all as "Louie", peacefully passed away on September 4, 2021 at his home surrounded by his loved ones at the age of 74. Louie was a staple on 2nd Street as long time owner of O'Jung's Bar and one of the founding members of the Spartans NYB. He worked for over 25 years at the Philadelphia Navy Yard and also as a "Mr. Fix It" around his house and neighborhood. He loved a good card game, trip to the casino, and the country side of Pennsylvania. He was a family man who worked hard and always put God first in his life, being an active and devout parishioner of St. Casimir's Church. He gave and loved unconditionally touching an endless amount of people in his humble and quiet ways. His treasured moments were time spent with his family and friends. He will be missed by all whom he met and touched. He had a favorite saying, " We're Only Passing Through" but most would say that they were blessed to have crossed his path and were able to call him a friend.

Lou was the beloved husband of 50 years to Bobbi (nee Brabazon); devoted father of Dorothy Visack (Stash), Louie, Weezie, Holly Otto (Michael), and Harry (Maggie); loving Pop to his 17 grandchildren: Chelsea, Buddy, Madison, Chase, Louie III, Jacob, Jimmy, Kenadi Ann, Emersyn, Sammy, Michael, Mackenzie Ball (Andy), Bailee, Harry, Jude, Lucy, and Penelope, as well as, his great grandchildren: Hannah Rae and Kora. Louie is survived by his siblings: Bernard Eveler (Dina), Marie Jordan (Billy) Ruth Jung, Vincent Jung (Mary), and Rosa Ceffaratti. He is predeceased by Joseph and Floss Jung. He also leaves behind his nieces, nephews, and cousins. Relatives, friends, members of the Spartans NYB, and patrons of O'Jung's are invited to his Viewing, Thursday, September 9, 2021 from the Rogers Funeral Home, Inc. 1426-30 South 3rd Street, Philadelphia PA 19147 from 7 PM to 9 PM then again Friday morning from 8 AM to 9:30 AM followed by his Mass of Christian Burial at St. Casimir's Church, 324 Wharton Street, Philadelphia, PA 19147 at 10 AM. Interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, please make donations in Louie's name to the Katie Kirlin Fund, 229 Wolf Street, Philadelphia, PA 19148.

“ Louis AKA Louie was a dear friend of mine all the way back to 1985 he was a coworker at Philadelphia naval shipyard and then a friend and surprisingly a landlord for a little studio apartment I had on 4th Street South Philadelphia, I had been to his home and met his beautiful wife on several occasions discussing strategies for NYB or for a cup of coffee and possibly an adult beverage, Louie you will be truly missed sorry to hear of your passing. Fair winds and following seas my old friend....

“ Dear Bobbi, Dorothy, Louie, Weezie, Holly, Harry & family members; Please accept our condolences on the death of your beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather & Great Grandfather, Louie. We are very appreciative to all of you for remembering the Katie Kirlin Fund during this difficult time. When we sent out our letter for our golf tournament every year his check was always the first one we recieved. He was a supporter of the fund and so many other neighborhood causes. Louie's donations will help many junior wheelchair athletes.

With Sympathy and Thanks,
Joe & Roseann Kirlin

“ To the Jung family: I am so sorry for your loss. Simply put, Lou was such a nice man. He was a fixture in my life when I lived across the street from the bar. Almost every morning, he greeted me with a cheerful, "Good morning!" as I left for work, and was usually still at the bar when I returned home. He was kind and generous, inviting me to nearly every Jung family gathering as if I was part of the family. And, he had a good sense of humor. I vividly recall teasing him one New Years Day about the music he blasted from the speakers perched on the outdoor steps at the bar: 12 hours of Neil Diamond's Sweet Caroline, or Tony Orlando and Dawn's Knock Three Times. "Lou," I teased, "You need to update your playlist." We just laughed. When I moved away, he visited to say good-bye and wish me well. I have missed him ever since. My deepest condolences to Bobbi and her family.

“ Bobbi and all members of the Jung family and related relatives. I am saddened by the lost of a good friend a pleasant and respectful person and a most down to earth individual anyone could be associated with Lou. Second Street should be proud of Lou for his outgoing personality and his kindness to help anyone who was in need. I know he will be sadly missed. Our sincere condolences and prayers for Lou and his family. Our deepest sympathy, Tom, John, George, Joe, Alice, Arlene (Former members of Linskys Pharmacy. 🙏
