“ When I would come to Ritner Street....Marlene always make me that fish sandwich.....which was my favorite and I still think of it today.

“ Deb, I only met your mom once or twice and spoke to her on the phone a couple of times but she was certainly a character! So darn funny!

She certainly loved you and you were an amazing daughter for her. The pride she had for you beamed! You took the best care of Marlene for sure.

Sending our love xo

“ Mom,

Your faith was so strong and deep, without any doubt. So there you are now with Aunt Di and Gram, united once again.

Memories are on overload and one stands out. I was probably 6 or 7 in my pajamas sitting on the landing of the stairs and there you were surrounded by your Motown albums and I was watching you dance. Total brilliant radiance. Peace has arrived at last and I can hear Marvin and Tammi (your two faves) singing - ain't no mountain high enough, ain't no valley low enough, ain't no river wide enough----- get up and dance, Marlene, and look around and you will see your three children dancing beside you.

It seems as though I was called Marlene's daughter as much as I was called by my name. Suits me just fine - there was never the need or want to be anyone else.

Mommy, I miss you - my love for you is everlasting.

Marlene's daughter

Debbie
