“ Mary and her family lived 2 doors up from us on Bradford Rd. My husband and I lived with my Dad as he aged from 2003-2012. Mary became a friend during those years. Even as a child we knew Mary was always there in times of need. My sister was 10 when my mom had a serious health crisis, she had the wisdom to run to Mary's house for help. We always credited Mary with saving Mom's life (along with my sister. 😊)
She has been gone from the neighborhood for many years but never forgotten. She was caring and generous with her time and her gifts. Rest in peace Mary you are loved and missed.
