“ Aunt Gin Gin--I am so grateful for the years spent together with you, Monk and Lisa. You accepted me just like a niece and always treated me like family. Your warmth and wit filled the room. I especially enjoyed watching you and Monk squabble! (Which was like all the time!)

I will always remember you freezing your trash and everything being perfect, immaculate, and spotless! I learned a trick or two from you for sure! I remember our many trips to the farmers market, Phillies stadium, and downtown Philadelphia. We sure ate well together!

I treasured the time working in the building next to yours in Philly and we would meet up for lunch. You are the epitome of loyal and such a beautiful soul.

I know you are in the perfect place finally meeting our creator walking streets of gold. Of course, there is a hole in our hearts here on earth, but I know we will meet again in heaven where it will all be perfect just like God intended. I love you Aunt Ginny!

Love, Gigi Robertson

“ I first met Ginny on public transportation going to work many years ago. Little did I know we would become the closest of friends and connected on a spiritual level as well. She always was ready with a joke and could cheer me up whenever I was down. Her beautiful eyes would always have an impish sparkle. I truly loved her with all my heart and always will. It is hard to imagine life without her. She touched my soul and this is a rare gift. I will not say goodbye but I will say until we meet again you will be in my thoughts and prayers.
