“ Mary will be missed by her family and the large group of friends that hung out at 5th and Morris. I last saw her at her brother Steve's celebration of life where we joked and laughed over memories. She wanted me to plan another reunion party of our crowd but life didn't allow me to do that then, and I wish it had. We could have shared more memories. Give my love to our family and friends you will join in heaven Mary, and until we meet again, Rest in Peace.

“ Mary was a kind and loving women in her younger years. She always went out of her way for everybody. She took me in when I left my home with my son . I needed a place to chill out for awhile away from my Husband . I didn't want to go to my Sibbling cause that would be the 1st place he go to. Mary called me and said come to her home. When I got there, there was 3 other people there that she took in . there was cots she set up for everyone. We called it MARYS HEART BREAK HOTEL We actually had a ball hanging out at her house for about a week and then I went home. SHE OPEN UP HER HEART AS WELL AS HER HOME. She was her Mothers daughter. We Were close to each other then. As we got Older and sickness came a pond the both of us we didn't see each other much. But we did keep in touch by phone. She called my Sister Diane the before she passed and wanted Diane to tell me to call her. (She most have loss her phone.) the # I was gaven wasn't Mary # . I then found out she was in Hospital. So pissed at myself for not getting back to her , letting my sickness get in the way of having one last conversation with her. Mary will always have a place in my heart and will never be forgotten. Till we meet again . set up them Cots in heaven . Love Judy

“ Mary was a very good friend to me in the begining when we first met. We had long talks and lots of laughter then shortly after that me and her youngest son started seeing each other and next thing you know i was becoming a mother to one of her grandchildren. Mary made me a baby book that i sat and watched her do for over 2 hrs. She welcomed me into her home to stay at then i looked at her as another mother i gained in my life. She had her ways but at the end of the day she was a beautiful loving woman who took care of others first before herself. I am very happy and grateful that i met her and that we remained close throughout the years. I will forever miss her and my heart is broken that she is gone. May she rest peacefully.
