“ Maryanne, was such a sweet lady. There was never a dull moment when she appeared in 1234 Market Street. I enjoyed hearing of her many trips and celebrations time with her family and she was the cruise queen. I'm grateful to know that she enjoyed her family and vacations. She will be missed. Praying comfort and memories of all the good times will bring a smile to your face each time you think of her love for you. Praying strength for you in the days ahead.

“ For me, Maryanne was this bright sunshine that illuminated the office, even on the gloomiest days: always composed, with a smile. She regularly shared with me the memories of her cruise trips, of which there were many. I never got to follow her advice to try one those cruises, but I believe that, when I finally do, I will remember her recommendations. It seems to be that the good ones never linger too long. I will surely miss Maryanne.
