“ My favorite memories of Micey were back in the early 90s on Greenwich str. Micey was like a big brother or uncle who taught me about life, the part of life Mom and Dad did not talk about. Playing halfies, fishing at Ft. Mifflin, or just sitting around on the step breaking stones. We would slap box some times and I would always quit because of those leathal claws he had. The guy would never cut his nails. Micey was the cool old head with more stories than Walt Disney, and a smile on his face when ever you saw him. You will be missed Mice. Rest in peace.

The Smile on Micey face whenever you saw him, will always be remembered. Just a simple, great guy and now that smile will be shining on the other side with all his loved ones as they welcome into his New Life. Gods Blessing to Micey and all his love ones. I love you all!!
