“ I helped Michelle's mother "Potty-Train" her with phone calls and a promise of "Big Girl Panties". A sweet child who grew sweeter by the day. May all the wonderful and wacky memories of Michelle help to ease the pain of the loss of a "visiting angel". Peace, love and all good. Mary Jane Marsh

“ I was lucky enough to have Michelle as a friend. We met at work and instantly bonded with her. Her laughter, spirit and warm friendly nature made it easy to love her. I will miss her more than words can ever express. She was our guiding light and eternal hope. Always smiling even in the worst of times. When we both got stuck in an elevator between floors, I panicked and she said "let's take a selfie and post it". Love you forever Michelle!

“ When Michelle was 3 or 4 her Auntie Clare made skirts for Michelle and her cousin. They were playing dress up and dancing around the house. We called them the “dollie sisters”. They would twirl around the house for hours. Even that young Michelle brought smiles and laughter to those of us watching her. Her infectious and zest for life will be sadly missed. ”

“ I was lucky to have met Michelle at work and then become her friend. She brought humor and positivity with her wherever she went, and I will miss her forever. One of my favorite days with Michelle was when she came to visit the farm and got up close and personal with “the nature.” I hope she took a hot air balloon up to heaven. ❤️. ”

“ I’m so very sorry to hear about Michelle. I still remember when she was born and Mary finally had a little baby sister 🌸. She was so damn cute! I loved playing with her and all her toys out on their front porch. She was adorable and one of my fave people as a young girl in the neighborhood. Seemed that everyone always looked after her ... now her turn to look over her loved ones 😇. God Bless you 🙏
Mary - my friend...sending you and your family all my love ❤️

“ I had the honor of caring for Michelle for the last year. I would hope to believe that we became friends. She was so positive and understood the direction that her life was heading. Michelle never complained about anything. The only thing Michelle was concerned about was her Mom, Dad and her sister and brothers and the rest of her family that they would be ok. We shared some cries together but we also had many laughs. I will also remember Michelle for her always telling her family to "focus". Also when I see the TV show "Charmed". She will be missed deeply. I believe that we have her watching us from above. One day I hope to see you again Michelle.

“ There are no words to describe the loss of Michelle. Yet, I could write a book on how beautiful she was inside and out. Michelle was so selfless even up to the day God brought her up to be with him. God needed Michelle, he needed her to teach the ones on earth what love, loyal, kindness, respect, patience, honestly, intuition, funny and giving are. Everything that Michelle is including intelligent. I know she taught me something. In all the deaths that I have been around, there isn't anyone like Michelle. She never wavered her stance on death. She kept her strength, her kindness, her dignity and her class to the very end, never wanted to inconvenience anyone. She was so in control of making sure if that. Michelle was always good at giving me great advice....heck, Mary always called her the “Boss” and that she was. I wish I was lucky enough to have a real boss like Michelle. As I write this, I can't find the defining words of how amazing Michelle was. I wish everyone that knew Michelle had a chance to see her in the last year, months, weeks and days because she shined so courageously and peacefully like no other. I miss her so much already. I know she will be missed even more from each and everyone in her family. She truly was lucky in a different way because her family support system showed nothing but love and time each and every day to her last breath. I know Michelle was grateful for this and I believe this is what made God take her peacefully. To have watched this unfold, it was she who taught me what a true angel is. You are the beautiful, amazing and shining “Boss” of all Angels Michelle. I am so lucky to have spent time with you. I love you so much Michelle 🥺❤️ I am missing you immensely already. Thank you for showing me how someone can be so selfless. You are at peace now and your soul will live with us forever 🙏❤️
