

Patricia McDonough

February 25, 2025

Patricia McDonough, peacefully passed away on February 25, 2025 at the age of 81. She was born on November 28, 1943 as one of identical twins (Joann) to Claude Johnson and Josephine Jankauskas in the Grays Ferry section of South Philly. She was part of a large family of 7 kids and attended St Gabriel's grade school before moving to Barrington, NJ and graduating from Haddon Heights HS. Her time in NJ ended when she became engaged and married the love of her life, Bill McDonough, settling back in Grays Ferry. It was here that she achieved her dream of raising a family and she became the loving mother of two sons, Billy (Wayne) and Michael (Erin) eventually becoming grandmother to Michael W, Delaney, Declan and G Grandmother to Collin, Fiona and Owen. Family was the most important thing to Pat and the love and kindness that she shared was enjoyed by all of those lucky enough to know her.

Pat is predeceased by her parents, siblings - John (Butchie), James (Jimmy), Marie Speel, Delores Slevin, and Bonnie Fitzsimmons. She leaves behind her sons, grandchildren, twin sister Joann Kirst and sister Gerry Alessandrine, cousins, especially Ray Smith, many nieces and nephews and countless friends that she met along the way.

Pat was an avid animal lover and solid member of the community, helping people in any way she could from wallpapering a family member's house, to hand sewing the 1st St. Gabe's Cheerleader's uniforms, to babysitting, to making the best potato salad for any event required. Her gift was giving and sharing whatever she had, no matter if it was a word of encouragement or a safe place to stay when life happened. Pat will be missed by all who knew her. Relatives and Friends are invited to her Visitation on Friday, March 7, 2025 from 10 AM -12PM from the Rogers Funeral Home, Inc., 1426-30 South 3rd Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19147 .

Interment will be private.
