“ Dear Taylor Family,
I knew Paul under the name of Berchmans in the Franciscan Community. He was a wonderful young man with great warmth and sensitivity and a great love for Philly. I saw him in the late 60's at Bishop Egan High School where I was teaching and then lost contact with him, but never forgot him. I tried tracing him down but had no success. His lasting memory will now be kept in prayer. May he rest in peace.
