

Richard W. Dickens

April 4, 2024

Richard W. Dickens, passed away peacefully on April 4, 2024 at the age of 45. He was born on June 24, 1978 in South Philadelphia to the late Elaine (nee Dickens) and Richard L. Dickens. He was the beloved brother of Joyce Carr (Paul) and loving uncle of Evan McFadden. He leaves behind his dearest uncle and friend, Walter Lucas and the late Cecilia Lignore. Richard was an avid gamer, wrestling fan, and sports enthusiast. He will be dearly missed. Arrangements were entrusted to the care of Rachubinski & Rogers Funeral Homes. All services were private.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ For over a year, I had the privilege to get to know Richard. He was my friend. Almost everyday, not just me, but many people would be blessed with his humble energy. He was witty, compassionate, thoughtful, and talented. He loved to write poetry and participated daily in meditation with a group of friends. Him and I share the same birthday. It breaks my heart that we won't be able to celebrate another with him. I think of my last conversation with him. I miss my friend. Thank you, Richard for always being a light in my life and bringing a smile to me even on my hardest days. I was blessed to know you. I know you you're at peace, until the next time. Sending Richard's family light, love, and healing.
Sincerely,
Christine

Christine - May 06, 2024 at 05:32 PM

LC

“ So sorry to see that Richie passed. He was a wonderful guy, unfortunately he had a not so happy life. Praying that he is in peace and reunited with his wonderful Mom. Who left to soon. Richie & my son Teddy went to school together. I always remember him as kind & loving. R.I.P. you will never be forgotten 🙏🙏🙏💔 Linda Campbell

Linda Campbell - April 09, 2024 at 02:56 PM

BR

“ I remb many late nights on GTA five we use to drive around basically goof off and do nothing just sit up and laugh and talk and have a good time, you would of thought we weee a bunch of kids the way we use to stayed up all night R.I.P my friend Rick àka Pooh T Bear always your Friend Brenda aka Kitty, you will be missed. Fly high

Brenda - April 08, 2024 at 06:33 PM