“ You could not be married to Rick for nineteen years without having wonderful memories. Rick loved to fish he watch all the fishing shows. One day he said to me I want to be a Pro Bass fisherman. Dear god thought, yes Rick when you retire you can be a Pro fisherman lol. The ones I hold close to my heart are the first time Rick held our children Sarah and Ricky and our Granddaughter Katlyn there was so much love and pride on his face. Every year when we would decorate our Christmas tree with all the ornaments that his parents gave him. He would unwrap each one with such care and hang it on the tree. You could see all the memories of that year on face. Ricks passing will never take these memories away they tuck away in my heart forever. I will always love you Rick and we made our peace with each other years ago. May you rest in peace My Spirit in the Sky.
